

Buckhead's Eco Collection Spring Clean Up

Volunteers Needed

Looking for a way to give back to the Buckhead Community and do something good for the environment at the same time? Have we got the opportunity for you!

What is the Event?

On March 24th Livable Buckhead, Inc. and Live Thrive, Inc. will team up together with Atlanta City Council Representatives Howard Shook and Yolanda Adrean to bring Buckhead residents an eco-friendly way to do some spring cleaning. From 8:30am until 2pm, experts will be on site to collect all of those hard to dispose of items like paint, household chemicals old computers, expired or unused medications, sensitive documents that need to be shredded, printer cartridges, bulky paper and more. The goal is to ensure these items are disposed of properly and recycled where applicable.

How Can You Help?

Volunteer Opportunities – We need 50 volunteers who will be organized into shifts each day of the event. Roles for volunteers will include: Participant Registration, Removing items from Cars, Traffic Direction, Site Set Up, Site Clean Up, Smiling Faces and Information Distribution.

During the event, volunteers will have an opportunity to meet City Council Representatives Yolanda Adrean and Howard Shook. Additionally an appreciation party will follow the event.

Contact:

For more information or to volunteer, please email Scott Cantrell at scott@batma.org or call 404.842.2685. More information about the event is also available at www.livablebuckhead.org.

