Employer Assisted Housing Program Tax Implications

Participating Employer:

- The Participating Employer is effectively giving their employee an 8-10% raise for the cost of giving them half of it.
- The total annual cost to the Participating Employer is the cost of their half of the subsidy for twelve months $2400 + $120 admin fees (5%) + $183.60 in payroll tax liability = $2703.60 per participating individual for a twelve-month lease.
- Payroll Process – To ensure payroll taxes are appropriately withheld, the employer should increase the employee's gross wages by $200 monthly with an offsetting after tax deduction of $200. This provides the offsetting entry that allows for the $200 payment to Livable Buckhead.

* Every company is a little different, so we encourage each participating company to discuss accounting processes with their HR and payroll specialists*
